

This is an unfair bill legislated by money hungry culprits. I urge you to reject NAB's attempt to block various services from offering other services. This creates much needed and fair competition in this over zealous market. As it is now, I do not listen to commercial radio. I only support and listen to public supported radio.

Respectfully,

Keith Howrad